Financing The Front Lines of Veteran Business

If you are a veteran, there are resources and funding available for your small business.

Veterans often do not understand the breadth of financing options available to their businesses. Moreover, they often miss out on veteran-specific nuances such as waived loan fees, veteran-specific angel investors, or military crowdfunding platforms. Half of all business failures are attributed to not knowing how and where to properly access capital and not having cash on-hand when its needed most. VETERAN LAUNCH is here to help veterans find and access the resources you need to start or grow your small business.

Our purpose inspires and drives us.

To increase the number of successful veteran-owned businesses, through capital, education, and relationships.

Our Purpose

VETERAN LAUNCH operates with the spirit of supporting both returning veterans aspiring to start and grow businesses as well as those veterans currently operating new or established businesses.

VETERAN LAUNCH is run and staffed by veterans who are connected to the veteran community.

CLIENT SPOTLIGHT

U.S. Coast Guardsman Cory McCollow and his wife Silvia opened the doors to their Oakland restaurant, Nido. Cory manages the business side of the restaurant, making use of the discipline and focus that he sharpened during his time in the military academy. Even now, with the restaurant in full swing, Cory retains his position in the Coast Guard. "Nido restaurant would not exist without the lending and business advising support from Veteran Launch," Cory said.

VETERAN LAUNCH has already deployed $2.6 million in loan capital to veteran-owned businesses.

VETERAN LAUNCH is at the forefront for financing for veteran-owned businesses. We do this through a unique approach of providing business resources and funding dedicated to veterans.
